Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The Foundation for Peace is dedicated to working hand-in-hand with people in need to enable their emergence from poverty. It is our belief that providing access to education, clean water, health care, and economic opportunity in partnership with those who care about them will be a successful formula for decreasing conflict and injustice.

In the Dominican barrios in which we work, there is no source of clean water other than to purchase bottled water. For many of the poor, bottled water is either not accessible or too expensive
In 2005, we helped to install another Healing Waters clean water system. This time in the Iglesia de Dios Pentecostal M.I.- Tres Brazos Church. This project was a partnership between the community of Tres Brazos, Iglesia de Dios Pentecostal M.I.- Tres Brazos, Healing Waters International and the Foundation for Peace. We expect to see the same type of overall health improvement in this community as was seen in Pantoja.
In addition to providing low cost water to the community, each Healing Waters system provides free water to the school the Foundation for Peace has helped to construct adjacent to the Water system site.	7,100.	7,100.

During 2005, 249 people volunteered with the Foundation for Peace. Participants came from twelve states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico with nearly half having been on previous trips. They joined together to work hand-in-hand with the Dominicans on 12 construction projects, cared for more than 7,000 patients in medical clinics and distributed more than 5 tons of educational, health and other supplies.	7,653.	209,419.

San Miguel is a rural community west of Santo Domingo. Here, one will find a multi-purpose building that houses a church, school and medical clinic.
On the first floor of the school (Centro Educativo Evangelico Vida Y Poder) is where the medical clinic in San Miguel has been located. We hope to move it up to the road level soon, so that it will be more accessible to patients. As you descend down the cement stairs to the lower level and around back of the school building you will find, Monday through Friday, a dedicated doctor, nurse and secretary to help whomever in the community may need their assistance.
The common illnesses of the people in San Miguel are infections, aches and pains, poor nutritional status, and the problems of aging, in particular hypertension and diabetes.
The clinic charges patients 50 pesos (less than $2.00) if they are able to pay. If not, they will be seen for something less or for free. All the funds received for the doctor's visit, which includes laboratory tests and medications, is put directly back into the operation of the clinic to care for those in need. The Foundation for Peace works with various pharmaceutical companies, most notably TEVA pharmaceuticals, to obtain donations of prescription medications to allow the staff to treat as many of the acute diseases and chronic conditions as possible. Qualifications of Recipients Receiving Grants or Loans

The Foundation makes scholarship grants that allow the recipients to pursue degrees from recognized institutions of higher education. Any resident of the Dominican Republic that is already attending an institution of higher education and maintains a satisfactory grade point average ("B" average or better) may apply for the scholarships. The organization's scholarship committee (composed of members of the Board of Directors) determines the scholarship recipients based on the applicants' past academic record, community involvement, and available economic resources (i.e., other potential sources for funding their studies).
